

This past year was the eighth year of Frivolous Ultimate. It was decided last year that we would wrap up the club. But due to time constraints (predominately of the President and Treasurer) we have needed more time to finalise everything. This will definitely been completed this year. The committee will send out an update on the final steps soon after the AGM.

Shavawn Donoghue
Frivolous President 2018